

Hadracha Educational Leadership in Action

“Education does not change the world.
Education changes people.
People change the world.”

Paulo Freire

Seminar Overview

This seminar explores Hadracha as educational leadership based on guidance, connection, and responsibility. Participants examine the role of the madrich/ah as educator and role model, while gaining practical tools for meaningful group leadership.

Through experiential learning and reflection, participants strengthen their ability to lead, inspire, and create value-based educational spaces.

Core Focus Areas

- The role and responsibility of the madrich/ah
- Group dynamics and meaningful relationships
- Values, role modeling, and leadership presence
- Communication, boundaries, and adaptation to different ages

Practical Tools & Experience

- Experiential and informal education methods
- Activity planning, facilitation, and feedback
- Addressing challenges in group leadership
- Adjustment to age definitions
- Jewish calendar as an educational framework
- Israel education: narratives, tools and resources
- Workshops, simulations, peer learning, and reflection

Additional Components

- Exposure to Shnat Hashara and future opportunities at the Machon.
