

Social Activism & Leadership Seminar

“The foundation of happiness is the love of truth in the mind,
the love of righteousness in life,
the love of beauty in sentiment,
and the love of good in action.”

HaRav Kook

Seminar Overview

This seminar explores social activism and leadership through direct engagement with Israeli society. Rooted in Tikun Olam, the program blends hands-on action volunteering, learning and reflection in response to real social needs in Israel.

Program Structure

Each day includes:

- Personal connection through stories and inspiring encounters.
- Volunteering experiences (with certificate).
- Interactive educational workshops on a daily theme.

Days open and close with guided activities led by an experienced Mechanech/et from the Machon, helping participants understand the topic, the social need, and the link between activism and leadership.

Topics May Include

Diversity in Israeli society • Lone soldiers • Rehabilitation after October 7th • Environmental awareness • Food rescue and sustainability • Strengthening Israel's periphery • And more
